No.

513
12/8/16

Shanghai Municipal Council.

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

August 11th 191[illegible]

Sir,

[illegible] these and pistols and all [illegible] material were sold by Chinese named Hooks are to Kiyosumi & Co No.30 Minghong Road. The metal is at present stored in that Company's godown and will be shipped to Japan later on.

Several ex-soldiers who until recently were in the employ of rebel leaders and who are without means, are anxious to join one of the parties of Chinese workmen, who are being sent to Europe but they have no money to take them to a point where they can enlist for [illegible] employment.

A rebel officer named Hsü Lai Li 許賚利 who obtained $500.00 from Sun Yat Sen to give to his followers has absconded with the money.

A memorial service in honour of Yen Chi Hsien 范鴻仙 an Anwhui Revolutionary who was murdered on 20th September 1914 was held yesterday in Zao Yuen Garden Connaught Road. There were about 100 persons present including Dr. Tsang Yuen 譚人鳳 formerly Director of Hankow and Canton Railway, Yen Yu Tsai 于右任 formerly Editor of Min Li Pao 民立報, Han Huai 韓恢 a leading rebel, Wu Han Ming 胡漢民 Chen Tsung Pao 張振鵬 Liu Tien Min 劉天民 and nearly all the above named persons had previously [illegible] the character of [illegible] of the branch way in which Wu Shi Tsang (吳世昌) was murdered. Tit h of Anwhui and Chang Hsun [illegible] the memorial ceremony. The [illegible] the removal of the rebel officials. They also complained that the police of the Shanghai Municipal Council would not allow them to hold the memorial service in Chang Su Hui's garden [illegible] to hold it at the Chinese Theatre to enjoy themselves. So far as to say that if we and the Chinese could not hold a memorial service in their own country.

The service which started at 2.00 p.m. and finished at 4.45 p.m. was [illegible] in the nature of a political meeting than a ceremony to honour a dead comrade.

No.

Shanghai Municipal Council.

POLICE FORCE,
(DETECTIVE BRANCH)

191

(c)

At 1 p.m. yesterday 1,900 ounces of opium and 1,600 pipes were burned in the City Yamen in the presence of representatives of the Judge of Kiangsu, General Yang, Taotai Chou, and Magistrate Shen.

Your Obedient Servant,

William Armstrong

Chief Detective Inspector.

K. 11/5.

Captain Superintendent of Police.